

Answer was: Yes, 1,055,242; no, 512,101.

...of the 1921 vote on a proposition of carrying the authoritative weight of the floor proposal.

Records of that election show that 1,713,356 persons of all parties voted on the bond of the ticket (state treasury) and that 1,377,352 voted on the over and wine proposal leaving only 141,643 who failed to vote on the proposition.

A repetition of the 1921 vote on a proposition of carrying the authoritative weight of the floor proposal, Mr. Brennan believes, will serve as a warning not only to dry congressmen but to state legislators who have been following the dictates of the Anti-Saloon league in Springfield.

Predicts a 2 to 1 Vote.

Illinois will go through a major election year than it did in 1922, said A. D. Hammond, head of the Association Opposed to Prohibition, when he turned Mr. Brennan's move. "Seventy percent of the legislature has grown tremendously since then when we carried 21 of the state's congressional districts."

Prohibitionists will vote for prohibition by better than 2 to 1. This is the biggest political issue now before the country, I said a few years ago that it would be and some people laughed at me. And it's getting to be a bigger issue every day.

Mr. Hammond was pleased with the turn the Brennan proposition will take.

Downstate Voted Wet.

In 1922 almost one-half of the vote for beer and who was furnished by the state to the territory along the river was 313,339 for the proposition and 214,002 against.

The petitions will be printed and put in circulation today. The law provides that public policy petitions must be

MA FERGUSON'S RIVAL ACCEPTS HER OFFICE QUITTING CHALLENGE

Des Moines, Iowa, May 23.—(AP)—Gov. Ma Ferguson, who has been challenged by her opponent, Governor Charles McNair, has accepted the challenge and will immediately resign her office.

This challenge was thrown out by the Iowa Supreme Court in 1922, but McNair is now challenging her.

Gov. Ferguson, who was elected in 1922, is one of the three most powerful women in the nation, in which two women leaders, Governor Ferguson and Mrs. McNair, are candidates.

Ma Ferguson's rival, Charles McNair, is a former governor of Iowa and is now a member of the Iowa Supreme Court. He is running for governor in 1924.

DEMOCRATS BACK STEIWER LEADS MAJORITY RULE STANFIELD OVER AT CONVENTION 11,000 IN OREGON

New York, May 23.—(Special)—Strong sentiment for the abrogation of the rule requiring two-thirds vote to nominate a candidate for president in a Democratic national convention is shown in replies from members of the Democratic national committee to telegraphic inquiries concerning their position on this party question sent out by the New York Times.

Of the members of the committee replying tonight, twenty favored such a change, seven were opposed to it and one was noncommittal.

The replies indicated that many of the Democratic national committee members favored the abrogation of the two-thirds rule if for no other reason than preventing a repetition of a deadlock similar to that between Gov. Alfred E. Smith and William L. McAdoo at the 1924 Madison Square Garden convention.

George E. Brennan of Illinois, perhaps the most influential national committee man supporting Gov. Smith at the 1924 convention, declared not only for the abrogation of the two-thirds rule but for the abrogation of the unit rule.

Looking Ahead In Business

Leading economists, bankers and business executives are of the opinion that the entire world is now entering a period of slowly falling prices to last for a number of years. Conduct of business in an era of falling prices presents radically different problems from those of a century ago. It is significant that the majority of men actively engaged in the management of business today have obtained their training and experience during a period of rising prices. And it will be necessary for them to readjust themselves to demands of the present.

For instance, in procuring of raw material, finishing of product, distributing to the trade and placing the goods in the hands of the ultimate consumer, the element of time must now be shortened in order to avoid possible losses. An assumed market paralleling production is highly desirable if not imperative.

Jobbers and retailers will wisely confine their buying to imperative. Merchandise which has a quick turnover, fewer duplicate items or lines will be handled and stocks will be small. Branded, trade-marked products with a consumer demand and acceptance. Manufacturers of such commodities will have a good business during years of falling prices. Other manufacturers may find business not so good as points slipping away on account of slow turnover in a falling market.

The practical application of advertising to business is one of the big issues of today. For over 17 years we have specialized in advertising and non-advertising. Our complete service is available to concern (write in Chicago or within a night's ride thereof. Write wire or call for further information.

NEW ITALY FULL OF VIGOR, FIGHT, MUSSOLINI SAYS

"Victory Now Depends on Will of People."

BY JOHN CLAYTON.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Genoa, Italy, May 23.—All Italy has attained its majority. Fascism has won the people's arms and a fighting spirit. Victory now depends on the will of the people.

This was the keynote of Premier Mussolini's message to the nation, delivered at dusk this evening before a crowd of 25,000 persons gathered in the Piazza de Ferrari. From 1 o'clock until 8:30 in the evening the vast throng, which filled the square, had patiently waited. Meanwhile the Duce, in another part of the city, reviewed soldiers, marines and Fascist organizations, in a process which required four hours to pass the reviewing stand. He also opened the congress of the Fascist senate's session.

Heat Fells Women.
Lights were gleaming from the Fascist emblems above the square when the Duce, dressed in a morning coat, top hat, black shirt, collar, and tie, appeared. Hemmed off from the immediate vicinity of the rostrum by a cordon of troops, the crowd showed remarkable patience despite the heat, which felled many women and boys.

With the appearance of the Duce the cheers and applause were as hearty as if the premier had appeared at the hour announced by the municipal authorities.

Mr. Mussolini cast his eyes over the vast throng, glanced at an empty space between the rostrum—built in the shape of the prow of an ancient Roman galley—and beckoned his hearers to come forward. The troops hesitated about permitting the crowds to come closer to the stand, but Mr. Mussolini insisted. His gestures and attitude indicated he wanted the closest possible contact with his people.

"A Nation 20 Years Old."
"I have been waiting years for this visit to Genoa," he began. "I have chosen the eleventh anniversary of our entry into the world war, for Genoa, together with Rome and Milan, helped break down the resistance to war in the days of May, 1915—those days which in the passage of time appear ever more glorious and seem clearly to mark the opening of a new history of Italy."

"The Italy of today is not the Italy of yesterday. Today the whole nation is a 20 years old and full of energy, spirit, tenacity. Today none can contest that this government represents the consensus of the whole people, of that people I love, but love with my own severe love."

"I have seen thousands of persons from the valleys of Italy, today—I noted their remarkable solidarity as they marched. This is not because we have given them names any material advantage. No! But it is because they are hungry for discipline, work, systematic tenacity, and want to be governed."

Need Will for Victory.
Do not suppose that we have riden our ambitions. We are not masters.

SLIGHT IMPROVEMENT IS NOTED IN CONDITION OF EVANGELINE BOOTH

New York, May 23.—(Special.)—The condition of Miss Evangeline Booth, national commander of the Salvation Army, who is ill at her home near White Plains with appendicitis and complications, though still grave today, was slightly improved. Her physicians were more hopeful of her recovery.

Yesterday the high temperature from which Commander Booth had been suffering decreased and today her temperature remained normal. For the first time in several days she was able to take a little toast and fruit.

It was learned the chief complicating factor in Miss Booth's illness is a kidney condition. Her physicians now think it is understood, that her present relapse was due more to this condition than to the walled off appendix, which has caused her trouble intermittently since last December.

but educators of the people. We have given the people arms and the military spirit. Arms alone are insufficient to insure victory unless the people desire victory with courage and not desperation.

"We have put through reforms which the whole of Europe is taking as models. The demagogues are dead and we can afford to ignore the wretched ghosts that hover around the melancholy sepulchres of Italian policy. There is no longer a struggle between the classes. Every class in Italy has its part in the life of the people; to halt is to recede. Despite all the pacifists, the life of the nation remains one of struggle."

The premier continued to speak of the difficult days ahead for Italy; of hard times which might visit the country on "gray days" in the offing. These days must be surmounted by the iron will of a disciplined people. Continuing he urged the Genoa not only to become the leading Mediterranean seaport, but to hold a dominant place in the air. It was difficult to place the premier's words exactly—whether he referred to victory on the battlefield or an economic fight.

Given Great Welcome.

One of the greatest welcomes of his career was given Premier Mussolini by the Genoese mariners this morning when the steamer Esperia, escorted by a fleet of vessels of the Italian merchant fleet, made its way into the crowded port. Every ship in the harbor was decked with flags and bunting. Every bell in Genoa, every whistle on a hundred ships joined in the greeting which lasted, with one brief intermission, fully half an hour, while the leather lunged Fascisti made themselves heard above the ear splitting din with their cries of "Long live the Duce!"

Premier Mussolini was on the bridge early. He wore the full dress diplomatic uniform, with gold lace and medals. Around his neck was the grand collar of the Annunziata, while across his shoulder hung the green sash of the Grand Cross of St. Maurizio Lazarus. Capping his close cropped head was the Fascist hat with a handsome white plume, which gave his features a distinct Napoleonic cast.

The Fascist military band burst into the strains of the royal anthem, followed by the Fascist hymn, while the Duce answered the tumultuous greeting with the Fascist salute. Overhead airplanes dipped, turned and saluted, and speedy motor craft circled the ship and slowly followed in its wake.

High city authorities and military and naval officers were lined up along the wharf to greet the Duce as he stepped ashore. He quickly reviewed the guard of honor; then in a motor car, smothered with roses and carnations the premier drove to the city hall, through streets packed with natives and visitors from miles around. There his favorites—the Ballia—the Fascist Boy Scouts—were on hand to greet him, lifting their youthful voices in the Fascist hymn.

I character in furniture interests you, you are cordially invited to visit and inspect this notable exhibit.

BESIDES authentic creations of the great English designers, there are fascinating examples by provincial master craftsmen.

A Rare Group in Yew-Tree Wood

A SEVENTEENTH century group in the yew-tree wood so favored in English country houses, is alone worth a visit. It includes a drop-leaf table, six arm-chairs, a roomy linen chest in yew-tree wood and a Northumberland dresser in elm—a unique collection.

THERE are individual tables, chairs, cabinets, chests of drawers that reflect every vogue of the outstanding centuries in English furniture. Console and Pembroke tables in satinwood—formal tables and chairs—and many informal pieces, like the set of eight Yorkshire ladder-back chairs, with their honest, sturdy beauty.

Fabrics, Pictures

EVERY article on display was personally selected by Mr. Watson during a recent tour of England. Despite their age and rarity, many pieces are priced below the cost of producing them today.

BRITTEN MOVES TO HAMSTRING NEW DRY EDICT

Will Ask House Ban on Use of Federal Funds.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., May 23.—(R. P. S.)—Opposition to President Coolidge's order authorizing the employment of city, county and state policemen as $1.10 a day federal prohibition enforcers is expected to crystallize in the house tomorrow.

Representative Britten, (Rep. Ill.), leader of the wet bloc, will introduce a resolution prohibiting the use of federal funds for such purposes.

Similar resolution is to be introduced in the senate, according to Mr. Britten, and concerted action will be taken in both houses to bring the measure up for consideration at the earliest possible moment. It is planned to take advantage of a situation "made to order" by the sweeping victory in the Pennsylvania senatorial primary as well as Gov. At Smith's approval of a New York state prohibition referendum.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrew's assertion last night that this is no time to talk about states' rights where prohibition is concerned has enhanced this opportunity.

"I can find no authority in law for the President's action," Mr. Britten declared today. "nor do I know of any much precedents in the history of the government. I am surprised that it appears necessary to enroll volunteers for the enforcement of law and order at this time."

Excepting, of course, the fact that the prohibition law is the most unpopular act ever passed by any government, it would be just as reasonable for the President to enroll employees of the city of Chicago for the collection of income taxes. He might also call for volunteers, at a dollar a year, from the ranks of county employees to act in the office of the United States marshal at Chicago.

The executive order according to Mr. Britten, is a complete contradiction of the President's stand in his recent Washington, Va., speech for "the right of the states to govern themselves and opposing further aggression under federal authority."

Sees Impunity on Defensive.

Prohibition function, he continued, have been the objective and are suggestive wartime legislation to prevent further slipping into disrepute, even to the extent of enrolling volunteers who are already on a state city or county pay roll.

If the presidential order becomes effective I predict the greatest period of graft and corruption that the United States has ever known. I shall oppose this step in every way possible. I do not think the President has any more authority to confer federal power on state officials than I have, and I propose to stand out about it.

That end I intend to introduce a resolution prohibiting the use of the federal treasury for the payment of a state dollar for this headlong "lawless" service in itself in no wise a violation of our civil service law.

analyses its possibilities. It would not be impossible for a United States district attorney and a state attorney to throw the federal service into the prosecution of housebreakers, automobile speeders, gun tofers and the regulation of local public utilities. At the same time state or city officials could be drafted into the chasing of beer peddlers, bootleggers, and prohibition violators.

If economy is one of the desired ends, he suggested, the national treasury might save more money if the order is interpreted to permit the federal collector of the port of Chicago to enroll among his employees state and county officials at $1 a year. In this way the Chicago economy plan could be made even more effective.

analyses its possibilities. It would not be impossible for a United States district attorney and a state attorney to throw the federal service into the prosecution of housebreakers, automobile speeders, gun tofers and the regulation of local public utilities. At the same time state or city officials could be drafted into the chasing of beer peddlers, bootleggers, and prohibition violators.

If economy is one of the desired ends, he suggested, the national treasury might save more money if the order is interpreted to permit the federal collector of the port of Chicago to enroll among his employees state and county officials at $1 a year. In this way the Chicago economy plan could be made even more effective.

FIND NEW LOCAL ANESTHETIC 'AT U. OF WISCONSIN

Madison, Wis., May 23.—(Special.)—The field of local anesthetics in surgery may be revolutionized by the results of three years of experiments at the University of Wisconsin, according to an announcement last night. Prof. S. M. McEwen made known the discovery of a local anesthetic which has zero and one-half times the anesthetic duration and one-tenth the toxicity of cocaine.

Preliminary tests of the effective-ness of the drug were made by Ralph Jones, a research assistant in the pharmacology department, and the compounds were found to have various degrees of toxicity and various anesthetic values. University directors will make clinical tests of the new drug, which are expected to confirm the present laboratory tests.

The anesthetic will be explained by Prof. McEwen at the regional meeting of the American Chemical society, starting May 25. The new drug is closely related in structure to cocaine.

$15 HAT CLEARANCE

A CLEARANCE at Taylor's really means hats that are very new, for millinery here is brought out months ahead of the mode. It's especially true for this event, since not a single hat is more than three weeks old. . . . some have just been taken out of the boxes. Everything correct in straw, visca, fabric and felt, in the large and the small shapes, in tricky styles for garden, "summer semi-formal" and sports wear.

The fact is that not one hat in this sale is less than a $25 value.

LINK BLINDFOLD MURDER VICTIM TO CAPONI GANG

Police Get Clew in Sec
Telephone Number.

The strongest link yet discovered yesterday in the chain of circumstances apparently connected with the activities of Frank Crimaldi, known as the "Franklin Park" blind murder, to the machinations of Al Caponi gang of gamblers and bootleggers in Chicago.

This was the finding among Crimaldi's effects at the Webster hotel, one of Caponi's many secret telephone numbers jotted on a slip of paper, which was found in the room. Only those who have been given the number of the phones installed in the well guarded hiding places of gangster chief.

Phone in Caponi's Quarters
The number discovered is deemed to be that of the phone in Caponi's living quarters at the Hawthorn hotel, in 221 street, Chicago, strong of the Caponi gang.

In addition, scrawled upon another slip of paper in Crimaldi's room, the telephone number of the office of Italy cafe, one of the resorts over controlled by Caponi.

Armed with this corroborative evidence, the Chicago police are most likely a satellite of the Caponi organization, police maintain that logical place to look for the Crimaldi murder.

Deputy Chief of Detectives J. J. Stoeckert presented another theory of murder, last night. He believed Crimaldi might have been killed in vengeance by friends of Howard McAlister of Detroit, for whose murder authorities there were unable to find him because he married McAlister's widow, Irene Baker Crimaldi, the chief witness to the crime.

Police Get Clew in Secret
Telephone Number.

The strongest link yet discovered in the chain of circumstances apparently connecting the activities of Frank Crimaldi, victim of the Franklin Park "blindfold murder" to the machinations of the Caponi gang of gamblers and bootleggers in Chicago.

This was the finding among Crimaldi's effects at the Webster hotel of one of Caponi's many secret telephone numbers jotted on a slip of paper. Those close to Caponi, detectives say, have ever been given the numbers of the phones installed in the various well guarded hiding places of the gangster chief.

Phone in Caponi's Quarters.

The number discovered is declared to be that of the phone in Caponi's quarters at the Hawthorne hotel, in 222 street, Cicero, stronghold of the Caponi gang.

In addition, scrawled upon another slip of paper in Crimaldi's room was the telephone number of the Garden of Italy cafe, one of the resorts owned or controlled by Caponi. Armed with this corroboration of their suspicions that Crimaldi was most likely a satellite of the Caponi organization, police maintain that the logical place to look for the Crimaldi quarters is among Caponi's enemies. Deputy Chief of Detectives John Bope presented another theory of the murder last night. He believed that Crimaldi might have been killed in revenge by friends of Howard McDonough, of Detroit, for whose murder the authorities there were unable to prosecute him because he married McDonough's widow, Irene Baker Crimaldi, the chief witness to the crime.

Find Missing Girl.

The hiding place of Mildred Kavanaugh, young Pontiac, Ill., woman, sought by the police under the belief that she could throw light on the mystery surrounding the Crimaldi murder, was discovered by the police last night. Miss Kavanaugh satisfied them that she was not with the murdered man on the night he was shot to death.

She admitted that she knew Crimaldi and had been on a cabaret trip with him recently. Because of the publicity she was given by the finding of her telephone number in the dead man's effects, she said she had been advised by her attorney, Leo P. Wormser, to remain in hiding for a few days, and she went to the Port Dearborn hotel, where she has been staying since the murder under the name of Eva Miller.

Mike Carozza, head of the street cleaners' union and ex-convict, who was instrumental in bringing Crimaldi to Chicago, is free on $500 bonds on a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

DETROIT WILL SEND 5,500 TO EUCARIST FETE

Few cities throughout the country are more active than Detroit in preparation for the coming international Eucharistic congress, which will take place in Chicago June 20 to 24.

Charles E. Shea, executive of the Holy Name society there, has made reservations in Chicago for 5,500 members of the society, who will attend the congress in the official Holy Name pilgrimage.

Another interesting party to come from Detroit for the great religious festival is comprised of 100 Maltese pilgrims, who will have a special meeting place in Chicago, where mass will be celebrated on each of the days of the congress by the Rt. Rev. Michael Gonzi, D. D., bishop of Gozo in the Isle of Malta.

A "Catechism of the Congress," issued by the Rev. Michael Gallagher, bishop of Detroit, has been widely published and has greatly stimulated the interest of thousands of Catholics from that city who will attend the ceremonies in June.

DRIVER'S INJURIES PROVE FATAL.
Thomas Lick, 33, 927 West Cullerton street, died in the county hospital yesterday from injuries he received when the motor car he was driving Thursday was struck by a street car at Halsted and Cullerton streets.

MOTHER STABBED TO DEATH BY HER RUM CRAZED SON

Most Unlucky home this morning is to be credited with another tragedy. Mrs. Marion White, 43, was stabbed to death by her son, John White, 21, who was drunk on rum.

White, who was 21, was found in the kitchen of his home, 436 West 43rd street, where he was living with his mother, Mrs. Marion White, and his step-uncle, John White, brother-in-law of his mother.

Steps Between Them: Stabbed.

But Marion gave a sudden wrench and swung upward with the knife. Just as he did so his mother stepped between the two men and the long blade plunged into her abdomen.

She moaned and dropped to the floor. White ran to the window and called wildly for the police.

When they arrived Marion was standing over his mother, apparently not realizing what he had done. Capt. Knight saw him shake his head and

William Siegel, 51 years old, of 1435 West Roosevelt road, and his 4-year-old son, Samuel, were taken to the county hospital seriously injured last night after they were struck by a street car at Roosevelt road and

YOUTH, SPYING ON WIFE, SHOT DURING QUARREL

Near Death in Hospital; Assailant Is Held.

 Norman Guild, 29 years old, 5827 South Francisco avenue, was near death at the Brickwell hospital, and William Grimm, 17 years old, 3247 West 47th street, is being held at the New City police station following a quarrel and shooting early yesterday in front of 4534 South Fairfield avenue.

—Suspicion of the friendship between the wife, Ann, and a certain Art McNoughton, whom he suspected of meeting her secretly at the home of her mother, Mrs. Anna Niswell, Guild was watching for McNoughton as he sat in his parked automobile at the Fairfield avenue address.

Girl Tells of Quarrel.
 With Guild were Miss Anna Sawyer of Cincinnati, Mrs. Guild's cousin, and Edward O'Brien, 426 West 29th street. Suddenly a couple drew up alongside our car," Miss Sawyer explained, and William Grimm got out. He opened the door and roaredly inquired if Grimm was in the car.

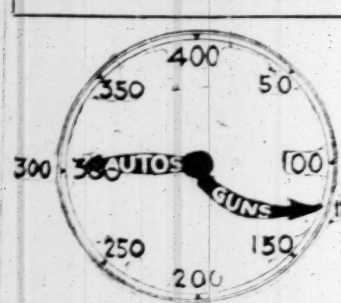

Alibi Is Self-Defense.
 Grimm, traced through the license number on his car, which was noted down by Miss Sawyer, later admitted to Capt. James J. Flemming at the New City station that he did the shooting, but declared it was in self-defense after Guild attacked him. He is being held pending developments in the condition of the wounded youth.

Refusing to leave his side, Mrs. Guild, 17 years old, a bride of six months, said that her husband had always been jealous of her friendship for the married man, and that she consequently teased him about it. She said McNoughton was a married man with five children.

Six Year Old Boy Dies from Bonfire Burns

George Strickler, 6 years old, of 134th street and St. Louis avenue, Mount Greenwood, died at the Chicago Osteopathic hospital yesterday of burns suffered on April 17. The boy, whose father is a clerk in the office of the Pullman company, was burned in a bonfire in the yard of the family residence.

3 GIRLS INJURED AS AUTO LEAPS ACROSS SIDEWALK

Three little girls, standing on the steps of a porch at 5421 Essex avenue, were seriously injured last night when a motorist lost control of his car and it crossed the sidewalk and struck them.

Elizabeth Mazarski, 5 years old, 5415 Essex avenue, was the most seriously hurt. Both her legs were broken. Anna Galin, 9 years old, and her 7-year-old sister, Flora, were cut and bruised. They live at 5421 Essex avenue. All three were taken to a hospital.

Frank Simanski, 1413 Essex avenue, the driver, said that the steering mechanism of the car gave way. No deaths were reported in Cook county yesterday as a result of automobile accidents. The total for the year remaining at 569.

Joseph Zurek, 14 years old, 613

North Racine avenue, suffered a fractured leg when he was struck near his home by a car driven by James Termini, living at the same address. Ralph Wineyard of Crystal Lake, Ill., was killed early yesterday in a crash on the highway between Elmhurst and Delavan, Wis. His companions, Jack Giles and Joseph Lutsch, were seriously injured. Neither Giles nor Lutsch were able to make a statement, but it is believed their car was struck by a train on a grade crossing.

Mrs. Deo Parsons, widow of the broker mysteriously burned to death in his apartment, 185 East Chestnut street, May 31, 1925, was slightly injured yesterday when her roadster was struck by another car at Dempster street and Waukegan road.

Although thrown to the road by the force of the collision, Mrs. Parsons was only slightly injured.

 PARIS, May 23.—The war this afternoon announced the capture of Targuist, the headquarters of Abdel Krim, the Riffian leader since the Spanish forces took last autumn. The French cavalry, supported by Spanish cavalry, entered Targuist after a hard fighting at its approach. The Riffian leader had wanted to have fled to the mountains. BOOST CIVILIAN FLYING, PLEASE PHILIP WRIGLEY

"We will never have real air until we have commercial aviation," said Philip K. Wrigley, 31 year old son of the William Wrigley company and one of the backers of the National Air Transport Corporation, yesterday. Mr. Wrigley, superintendent of the school of mechanics at Great Lakes, the world war.

"I think that much of our air policy is wrong," he said, "are continually talking of aviation, then congress appropriates millions for military aviation. PRINCIPALS' PRINCIPLES:

(and how they brighten, or shadow, the Daily Life of Every Customer of Any Merchant.)

EVERY TIME YOU LEAVE A STORE WITH A COMFORTABLE INNER sense of having procured a good money's-worth, plus an agreeable undercurrent of self-satisfaction due to unusually pleasant conditions of purchase, you go home in an amiable state of mind and have a happy evening. (Is it not true that the reverse sort of experience may cast a tinge of battle-ship gray over a whole night?)

THUS, THE PERSONAL PHILOSOPHY OF A MERCHANT, as expressed in the business policy of his House, may color many odd moments for countless people, and with far-reaching, though unknown, consequences in situations wherein little things sometimes lead to big ones.

THIS FACT implies a clear moral responsibility to the public, of which only the greatest merchants are conscious, or take account;—yet every merchant owes his business life to the goodwill of the people whose trade he solicits.

O-G SALES-PEOPLE do not try to convince you of what you want;—their duty, and practice, is simply to make sure that you get what you want—in superior merchandise.

O-G SALES-PEOPLE do not presume to tell you at what price to buy;—they strive only to assure you of notable satisfaction for the sum you wish to pay.

NO TRANSACTION in any O-G store is complete until you are thoroughly satisfied—"for keeps."

Your Unqualified Confidence and friendly pride in the House of O-G are our solidly-anchored objective, to which O-G money's-worth, O-G fashion pre-eminence and O-G old-time integrity are but contributory elements.

UNIFORMITY OF STORE-CONDUCT is another O-G characteristic. If you are a customer of one O-G shop, and drop into another one, you feel at home at once. You know what to expect, and you find it.

WE BELIEVE THAT THE PRINCIPLES OF A HOUSE ARE SIMPLY AN EXTENSION OF THE PERSONAL IDEALS of the owners of the business, and we make it possible, notwithstanding a very large and busy organization, to be always "in the middle of things," and to continue solicitous for the successful handling of every phase of each day's activities. ("Successful handling" has just one primary meaning—YOUR complete and enduring satisfaction as a customer, whether new or of long standing.)

IN SHORT, THE UNDERSIGNED ARE AS MUCH "ON THE JOB, PERSONALLY," TODAY, WITH A VOLUME well into seven figures, as we were in 1903 when we took turns opening up our little store extra-early each morning, lest our Thursday customer should happen to stop in on his way to work and conclude that our Wednesday customer had cleaned out the O-G stock.

The O-G principles of 1903 account for the O-G volume of 1926:

THAT is the answer to any who would cynically deny the intelligent discrimination, or the thoroughbred loyalty, of the best people in the Mississippi Valley—and of many more distant places throughout the United States.

WE ARE justly proud of the continued favor of all our past and present patrons, and we respectfully invite a test of O-G values, O-G style-leadership and O-G store-conduct, by all men and women who cherish an inborn taste for the very best in footwear—shoes, slippers, hosiery—at a price-range, and in a variety, impossible in any stores of lesser volume and prestige.

MAY WE ADD your name to our list of valued charge accounts?

Respectfully,

O'Connor & Goldberg

STARVING ARMY IN CHINA DRIVES TO BREAK TRAP

BY CHARLES DAILEY.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

PEKING, May 23.—The starving remnants of Marshal Feng Yu-hsiang's shattered Kuomintang (national army) is launching a desperate attack on the Shanai forces along a forty-mile front west of Peking in an effort to fight its way to a region where the soldiers may obtain food.

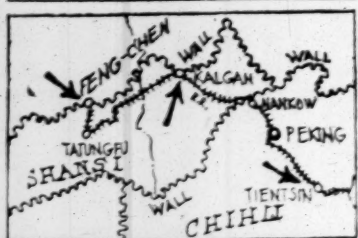

Eighty thousand Shanai troops are fighting to stem the attempted invasion. Authentic reports to Peking indicate that six simultaneous attacks were made in the wild, scarcely explored territory. The actions so far have been indecisive, as the Shanai troops made two counter attacks.

Approximately 100,000 Kuomintang troops are trapped between Nankow pass and Fengchen, 200 miles west of Peking. But they have been unable to put the whole force into action, owing to the concentration of Manchurian and Wu Peifu forces at the mouth of Nankow pass and at Dolonoring to the north. The latter point is expected to be the scene of the main Manchurian attack.

Yen Hui-shan, governor of Shanai province, is frantically telegraphing Chang Tso-shan and Wu Peifu to attack immediately to save the province. Reinforcements are passing through Peking hourly, while other forces are marching westward from Jehol, which is toward the Manchurian border.

The Kuomintang was reduced several days ago to one meal a day. The country is virtually without food, rationing ten ounces of flour, two ounces of vegetables, and two ounces of meat daily to each civilian. The railway is cut on both sides and the receipt of further supplies is impossible. Wire communications are wrecked.

BATTLE 80,000

The shattered army of Feng Yu-hsiang has opened battle on 80,000 Shanai troops west of Peking, in an effort to escape the trap of encircling forces and reach food supplies. About 100,000 Feng troops have been caught in the trap.

KIMBALL PIANOS

Generous Value

HAVE you realized the full meaning in the large volume of Kimball distribution, which leads that of every other piano sold in America?

But you will appreciate Kimball quality more fully at a demonstration. Come and hear this wonderful instrument—see the new styles in grands, large and small, reproducing grands, uprights and players. HELIUM GAS MAY SAVE LIVES OF DEEP SEA DIVERS

Washington, D. C., May 23.—(Special.)—Helium gas, now used in lighter than air ships, such as the navy's dirigible Los Angeles, may prove a valuable life saving agency in the light of experiments being conducted by the navy department and the bureau of mines. Already it has demonstrated its value in emergency measures to save the life of a diver stricken with "caisson disease" or "bends" while probing the wreck of the submarine S-51 recently.

Now it appears from tests made in the bureau of mines that helium mixed with oxygen may prove the ideal mixture for diving purposes and furnish to divers rather than the plain air now used, may prevent "caisson disease." Thus far the bureau's tests have been made with animals, but in the near future it is planned to use a decompression chamber, tested to 500 pounds air pressure, in which divers, operating under conditions as nearly approaching deep sea diving as possible, will be observed.

LEAGUE DISARM PARLEY SPLIT ON WAR FORCE CURB

GENEVA, May 23.—(U. N.)—As the League of Nations disarmament conference opens today, the United States, Britain and Japan find themselves at odds in their desire for a further conference on naval disarmament. The chief accomplishment of the week may be summed up as bringing into greater prominence the views of two groups of the French group on the one hand and the English-American-Japanese group on the other.

Disarming a European Problem.
First of all there has been demonstrated the fact that disarmament is at present a European problem and that until some basis can be found for permitting reduction of European armaments it will be impossible to consider a general proposition embracing other continents.

The United States and Japan, through their representatives, have therefore contented themselves with constructive suggestions designed to reconcile the divergent French and British viewpoints on which the whole problem of European disarmament hinges and have made no concrete suggestions for a world-wide disarmament program.

Britain Urges Concrete Reductions.

It has been apparent from the opening of the meeting last week that both the American and Japanese representatives have inclined to the English viewpoint. The British contend that disarmament is most likely to be accomplished by reduction of specific and visible units such as ships, guns and men, instead of by an endeavor to arrive at a general formula embracing invisible armaments, such as a nation's entire industrial capacity.

The talk of suggesting a separate naval disarmament conference continues and it is understood that the proposition will be broached before adjournment. The United States, Britain and Japan favor such a conference, but no effort has been made thus far to suggest it. Due to the realization that Europe's solution of disarmament in other lines should have prior consideration.

Japan Wants to Keep Conscription.

TOKIO, May 23.—(A. P.)—Japan's military authorities are strongly opposed to the suggestion put forward at Geneva by the American delegates on the preparatory disarmament commission for the abolition of military conscription. The Japanese press reports today. According to these accounts, high military officials contend that a volunteer army is more expensive than one raised by conscription. America, they say, being wealthy, can afford to employ the volunteer method, but Japan cannot.

Gray, newly elected president of the Yellow Cab company, will entertain 7,500 employees of the concern with their families and friends at a three day May festival to be given in the Coliseum beginning tomorrow. 600 Attend Printers' Annual Memorial Service

More than 600 attended the annual memorial services of the Chicago Typographical union No. 14 yesterday in the Olympic theater. The Rev. S. E. Brown, an associate editor of the New World, and Rabbi Felix Levy of Emanuel congregation delivered addresses. Worthington De Wolf, vice president of the local union, presided. John R. Haste called the roll in behalf of the Old Time Printers association. Several musical numbers were played by the Chicago Typographical union band.

sought shelter in a shepherd's hut near his castle at Windsor, he found there a chair "the like of which he had never seen before." The village wheelwright had fashioned it on the principle of a wheel, with slender spokes and bent felloe.

The King, greatly pleased with its grace and comfort, had it copied (so the legend goes) and thus the vogue of the Windsor chair began.

Later, Windsor chairs were greatly favored by our American ancestors and made in many new forms peculiar to our own country.

Today Danersk Windsor chairs and other fine furniture appropriate for use in banks and executive offices are made in our own New England factories by Scotch and English cabinet-makers well skilled in their craft. On display at our salesrooms.

DENIES CHICANE IN PLAN TO HALT BRITISH STRIKE

BY JOHN STEELE

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
LONDON, May 23.—An unequivocal "no" was Sir Herbert Samuel's reply today to the letter from the Trades Union congress challenging him to deny that he had consulted Prime Minister Baldwin in connection with his memorandum on the strength of the union's general strike. The union officials say they acted on definite assurance that Sir Herbert's terms were acceptable to the government.

gross officials were on their way to 10 Downing street to give notice of the calling off of the strike.

Acted as an Individual.
He says in his conference with members of the Trades Union congress he made it plain repeatedly that he was not acting for the government, since the government had declared it would not enter into negotiations of any kind so long as the general strike continued.

"There was undoubtedly an honorable agreement between the Trades Union congress and myself that I would use my best endeavors to secure the adoption of the memorandum's proposals," Sir Herbert's statement reads. "Because I had been chairman of the royal (coal) commission, I felt justified in entering into such an agreement, believing any further suggestions I would make, should not be without weight, although made in an individual capacity."

"I knew the government was considering favorably the principle of the national wages board containing a recommended in the royal commission's report and which was the central provision of the memorandum."

Sir Herbert points out that all the points of the memorandum except two are covered by the government's recent proposals. These two points are the provision that some allowance besides unemployment pay be made for miners who are displaced owing to the closing of nonpaying mines and the proposal that the wages board be required to fix rates below which no class of labor would be reduced.

In view of the employers' proposals for wage reductions far beyond those recommended by the royal coal commission's reports it is believed this latter provision is desirable, he says.

Miner Assails Labor Leaders.
PORTH, Rhondda Valley, Wales, May 23.—(AP)—Addressing a miners' demonstration here today, A. J. Cook, secretary of the miners' federation, bitterly denounced the trades union council and labor leaders for calling off the general strike. He remarked that he never had been bullied either by the employers or the government ministers as he had been bullied by certain trades union leaders to accept a reduction in the miners' wages.

The calling off of the strike, he declared, was a shameful betrayal, and the speeches of Ramsay MacDonald (former Labor premier) and J. A. Thomas (secretary of the railwaymen's union) would be read by the working classes with shame.

GIRL AND FIANCE HELP HUNT 5 WHO TOOK THEIR GEMS

Miss Virginia Poehlman, daughter of August Poehlman, wealthy dentist and former mayor of Morton Grove, and her fiancé, Dr. George W. Blaha, a dentist, yesterday rode for several hours with detective squads visiting cabarets and roadhouses west and northwest of the city, seeking five automobile bandits who earlier had robbed them of jewelry and furs valued at $14,700.

The robbers early in the morning had followed the car driven by Miss Poehlman to Kildare avenue and School street, near Dr. Blaha's home, where the couple had intended to stop for a few moments. Three of the men had revolvers. They forced the dentist and his companion to lie down in the bottom of the auto while they took the money and jewelry.

They took from Miss Poehlman a platinum watch set with diamonds and a chain with two large diamond drops valued at $3,000; a platinum and diamond ring valued at $1,500; and several diamond and platinum bracelets valued at from $500 to $2,000.

CITY'S FIREMEN WILL ASK $300 SALARY INCREASE

Fifty cents an hour wages to purchase $50 uniforms is highly insistent in the minds of members of the Firemen's Association of Chicago, who further feel that the $2,200 yearly salary the city pays firemen is not in exact keeping with the report submitted by the National Board of Underwriters some time ago which gave the Chicago department the highest rating in the country for speed and efficiency.

A remedy for the situation will be used in the next two weeks from the reads of the various municipal departments, from the mayor on down.
William S. Johnston, president of the association, announced yesterday, a committee from the association will ask the cooperation of city hall officials in obtaining a $300 yearly increase, bringing the department up to the present scale of New York, which pays its fire fighters $2,500 a year.

Not Enough for Children.
The principal contention of the Firemen is that the present salary schedule does not provide for adequate food, clothing or education for their children, the present stringent regulations governing uniform inspection only causing an additional burden.

A uniform of good quality, fit to stand inspection by the assistant fire marshals cost each fireman from $45 to $50, Mr. Johnston said. The $300 increase would more than keep them neatly clothed, besides easing the strain on the pocketbooks that household expenses bring.

Will Then Petition Council

If the committee which calls on the mayor and his cabinet is successful in obtaining their support, they will then depend upon the city council and ask for the increase. Just what action the aldermen could take with the budget already made up for the year is not known.

To support their plea, Mr. Johnston points to the wages paid firemen in other cities, a number of which pay $200 and sometimes $250 more than Chicago. They include New York,
$2,500; Detroit, $2,400; San Francisco,
$2,400; Newark, N. J., $2,300; Jersey
City, N. J., $2,200; Oakland, Cal., $2,400; Passaic, N. J., $2,300; and Yonkers, N. Y., $2,200.

FAIL OF TRAIN PROVES FATAL

John McKinstry, 45, Lemont, Ill., died at the County hospital yesterday from injuries received when he fell from the De Reuxes Great train of which he was trainmaster, while the train was pulling out of the Chicago yards.

PILSUDSKI CALLS POLAND'S CIVIL WAR CHIVALROUS

"Opposing Soldiers Are Once More Friends."

Warsaw, May 23.—"I am beginning to see clearly where my duty lies and the road I must travel," Marshal Pilsudski said in interview today. "I have been physically and morally exhausted by the two days' battle which I did not seek and which I wished to avoid at any cost. I could have avoided it if a crowd of civilians had not been among the soldiers."

The Polish marshal's eyes were red and swollen from lack of sleep. He spoke in a very soft voice, and although he seemed stricken with worry he looked young and quite different from the fierce person one expected to meet.

"Don't ask me what I shall do next week," Gen. Pilsudski continued. "I have a choice of means, and I will choose my hour. If there may be some hesitation as to the choice of means when one wishes to remain within legality there can be none when the goal is the salvation of Poland."

Will Not Violate Constitution.
"A regime of authority alone can do this. I will not violate the constitution, but I will not shrink from my duty."

Referring to the battle against the governmental troops, Marshal Pilsudski declared the curiosity of civilians who walked into the streets to see the machine guns prevented operations from being carried out as intended and was responsible for the shedding of blood.

"There were extraordinary scenes of suffering in this unprecedented battle," the marshal said. "The soldiers made every effort to spare their adversaries and civilians. Fortunately, we captured six cannon mounted on automobiles from our opponents at the very beginning of the attack, or there would have been more victims."

"It is said that civil war is a cruel foreign war. But ours, on the contrary, was quite chivalrous. The soldiers, who thought they had to shoot each other down, have already become good friends. On the other hand, the officers are less inclined to forgive each other and some duels will undoubtedly be fought."

Fears No Armed Opposition.
Asked if he did not expect further opposition against him to develop, Gen. Pilsudski said he did not fear the antagonism of some generals.

"When they wanted to march on Warsaw I cut the railroad lines with my tank regiment," he said, "and gave them time to think twice. At any rate, all the soldiers are for me and my only enemies are the corrupt and factious generals."

"So far as the political opposition is concerned, it is true that Posen is quite different from the Warsaw regions. Its material standards are higher and its culture is different, and it will take some time to arrange matters. But I do not think the politicians will ever settle the problem."

4 FACE CHARGE OF TOSsing GIRL OUT OF AN AUTO

Three young men and a woman companion were arrested by the South Chicago police yesterday after Miss Sophia Chieski, 18 years old, told of being tossed out of an automobile in which the five were riding at 79th street and Paxton avenue.

Sophia, who lives at 8029 Eganaba avenue, was picked up unconscious in the street and taken to a hospital, where it was discovered her injuries were not serious.

Those under arrest are Frank Soukai, 3755 Houston avenue; Benjamin Katz, 2134 East 87th street; John Lewandowski, 8544 Manistee avenue, and Marcela Givinski, 8515 South Shore drive. Sophia alleged that they offered to take her home from a party. The four assert, however, that she was not with them in the car.

See Great "Pacific Avenue" This Summer—2000 miles in length!

—A World of Wonders on both sides

—Every summer sport in an incomparable setting

—Your finest trip in years

"Pacific Avenue" connects the borders of Canada with those of Mexico and offers a myriad of rare interests in between.

A veritable paradise for summer vacationists lies along its entire extent—2000 miles of opportunity for recreation, rest and fun.

Mountains along the way rise up from six to fourteen thousand feet above the sea, valleys dip down to 300 feet below sea level.

Lakes, canyons, ocean, glaciers, giant redwood trees, rocky coast lines, great wide sandy beaches, hundred-mile views of awe-inspiring vastness, roaring cataracts and wildernesses, deserts like the famed Sahara and tremendous metropolitan communities with more than a million population—all are encountered to thrill, charm and amaze you.

Six famous National Parks, known as "Mt. Rainier," "Crater Lake," "Lassen Volcanic," "Yosemite," "Sequoia," and "General Grant," are here set aside by the U. S. Government for your enjoyment, your education and your fun.

There are also that great mountain lake called "Tahoe," the inspiring Columbia River Highway, the "Chained Land" of the Pacific Northwest, colorful Santa Catalina Island,—in fact a great new world of splendors reached through the gateways of Seattle, Spokane, Tacoma, Portland, San Francisco, Oakland, Los Angeles and San Diego. And here is the gateway to rare Hawaii, also.

On every side, a thousand and one features that bring change, new interest and rare diversion are here provided as nowhere else in the world:

Come here to fish, hunt, camp, play golf, swim, sail or motor; to enlarge the soul with stupendous scenic panoramas, or simply to rest. There is every opportunity to indulge all your whims.

Special "circle rates" permit you to see all of this great Coast by adding but a trifle to the cost of a low-rate round trip ticket that you would, otherwise, buy to only one Coast point and return. You can stop over as you will without any extra charge.

Take advantage of it, therefore, and buy the "circle trip." Any railroad ticket agent will tell you all about it.

Southern California

At the southern end of "Pacific Avenue" is Southern California, different and enchanting summer playground, where the mean summer temperature for the past 50 years, according to the U. S. Weather Bureau records, has averaged only 69 degrees! You have always wanted to see this beautiful, strange land.

We have listed probably the most complete book on vacations ever put in print. 47 pages, illustrated, tell all about this garden spot. Don't plan to spend your summer elsewhere until you get a copy of it free. Just mail coupon below.

But be sure, when you come west, to see the whole, great Coast—"Pacific Avenue." Make this your summer of unforgettable delight.

FARM BUREAU TAKES UP CUDGEL FOR WATERWAY

Washington, D. C., May 23.—(Special)—American agriculture, represented by the American Farm Bureau federation, today threw its strength behind the Illinois river waterway program and against the eastern lake states bloc which is conducting an active filibuster in the house to prevent passage of a rivers and harbor bill provision for completion of this link of the great lakes to Gulf of Mexico inland waterway system.

In a special letter, addressed to every member of both houses of congress, the federation reiterates resolutions adopted in a recent annual meeting warning that "there is no place for controversy relative to the necessity for river navigation. . . . It is imperative that all navigation projects officially approved be completed, and that adequate appropriations speedily made should be free from recurring interferences or cancellations by other governmental agencies."

Marshaled by the veteran Representative Burton (Rep.-O.), some fifty or sixty members of the house, including practically every member of the Ohio, Michigan, Pennsylvania and Indiana delegations, are pledged to delay passage of the $38,000,000 omnibus rivers and harbor bill by resorting to dilatory tactics until too late for the senate to act on the measure at this season. Their whole attack centers on an authorization of $1,350,000 in the bill for the Illinois river project.

On Saturday the filibusters kept the house in a tangle for five hours and adjournment was forced. The fight will be resumed tomorrow.

"The time has come," according to the farm bureau letter, "in the development of our vast country for more adequate transportation facilities for inland sections, which have such great difficulty in getting their products to seaboard and to consuming centers, as well as getting necessary supplies shipped in.

"Proper river transportation will serve a double purpose—first, promote a readier and more profitable commerce, second, and perhaps of more importance, make more feasible and profitable the interchange of commodities domestically. In promoting this double purpose the interests of our farming population will be greatly advanced. Our nation cannot be best served when our factories, for transportation reasons alone, are too greatly confined to a comparatively narrow strip of seaboard or to other small areas with special transportation advantages."

YOUNG BANDIT'S LIFE IS CLAIMED BY HIS OWN GUN

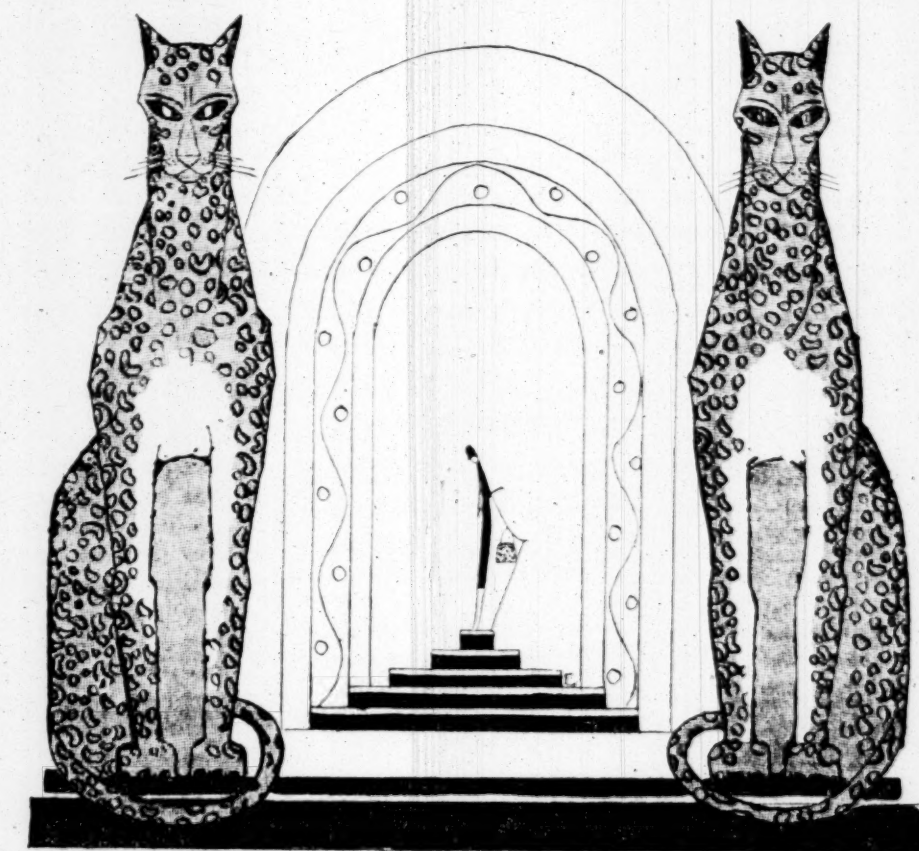

Michael Pirak, 3414 Hirsch street, confessed house prowler and burglar, who reached his fifteenth birthday last Friday, was found early yesterday by detectives in a semi-conscious condition in the rear of 2119 Warren avenue. The youth had been shot in the abdomen. An hour later he died on the operating table in the county hospital.

Pirak's pal, Willie Sieghof, 11 years old, lives at 1442 West Grand avenue. He was found kneeling beside his companion trying to stop the flow of blood from Pirak's wound. Willie told Sgt. Jenner that Mike had accidentally shot himself in Mike Peck's room, 2132 Warren avenue. A .38 caliber automatic pistol was found in Pirak's coat pocket.

Pirak hadn't reached the hospital before Willie told how he and his pal had burglarized a drug store at Iowa and Robey streets and a butcher shop at Ohio and Robey streets. He said that while in Peck's room Pirak had removed the clip from the gun and put it against his stomach and said, "Look, chump, it's not loaded." He pulled the trigger, then fell to the floor.

Appraising the Units of Your Sales Area

These illustrations are typical, being an average of data obtained from a study of suburban centers, from the reference department of the City Library, from income tax statistics and from motor car registration records.

The Suburban Unit

HERE is a typical better-class residence unit from which the New York merchant draws his suburban sales. Twenty families, or a population of about 85, live in this suburban block, with an average income of about $4,000 per family.

The average rental of these twenty homes would approximate $1,800 per year, or if owned, they would represent an average value of $12,000 each, or a total valuation for the unit of $240,000. Each family probably owns an automobile at an average cost of $1,000.

This suburban unit is within 25 miles of the city. Each housewife here "goes to town" perhaps once or twice a month, filling in most of her household needs from the nearest suburban shopping centre. The cost of delivering the merchandise which she purchases in New York is about double the cost of the big stores' city deliveries.

The combined yearly purchasing power of the entire unit, after deducting all actual necessities, uninfluenced by advertising, would be less than $50,000. There are probably from 7,000 to 8,000 such units in the New York suburban area.

The City Unit

HERE is a typical better-class New York City residence block of about the same area as the suburban unit opposite. It houses 260 families, or a population of more than 1100, with an estimated average income of $5,000 per annum.

The average apartment rental in this block would run $1,500, and of the dwellings about $2,500 a year. The assessed valuation of the unit would approximate $3,000,000. There are about 43 motor cars owned in the block, at an average cost of $1,500.

This city unit is within twenty minutes of all the big stores. The housewife may make a daily trip "downtown." The merchant is in constant contact with each home in this unit; his deliveries are made at about half the cost of his suburban deliveries. The combined annual buying power of a block like this would be in the neighborhood of $800,000 or sixteen times that of its corresponding suburban area.

Of the 15,000 "blocks" of Greater New York, it is estimated that 30% of them, based upon income-tax returns, would house the class comprising the residents of the above city unit.

Sales Are Quickest Where Home Folks Are Thickest!

THERE ARE, according to the best estimates available, somewhat less than a million English-speaking homes in Greater New York. While The World has a suburban circulation of 27,000 daily and 74,000 Sunday, its outstanding claim to the consideration of the advertiser is its superior coverage of the English-speaking homes in what is pictured above (to the right) as The City Unit.

There are about 18,000 residents per square mile in the city proper. This is the New York Merchant's Market, where the National Advertiser should have his greatest concentration of distribution. Outside of the city, there are about 350 residents per square mile. This market the New York merchant shares with the prosperous stores of some seventy populous suburban centres, the shops of which offer keen competition to the city merchant.

In the city itself, where The City Unit controls, The World leads The Times by 14,000 daily and 159,000 Sunday; it leads The Herald Tribune by more than 80,000 daily and 270,000 Sunday.

The World's complete domination, therefore, of that area of which the above City Unit is the outstanding sales factor, would seem to accord it first consideration at the hands of any advertiser seriously contemplating anything like adequate distribution in the New York market.

Merkner won the 22-mile handicap, feature event of the derby from seventh. The victory was carried with it the first prize, one of the most sought for honors in any handicap event. Before the banner race of the derby, Merkner had won the 4 1/2 mile event for class A riders. As a result of this splendid riding Merkner garnered $125 worth of merchandise certificates and secured 17 points for his club.

Belgian A. C. C. Wins Team Trophy.

Despite the great riding of Merkner, the well-balanced team of the Belgian-American C. C. won the team trophy by scoring 23 points in the seven races. Merkner placed the South Chicago Wheelmen in second with 26 points while the Harley playground team, directed by Jack Mack, came third with 34 points. Ten clubs broke into the point column and unattached riders garnered 41 points.

While there were many spills in the race and several races were finished for the 22-mile event to furnish the most excitement. More than 200 riders started in the main event and the hatches were sent away at thirty second intervals. At the start of the race a well-lunched group of riders swept past the finish line trying to overtake the limit riders. About 30 yards beyond two riders went down and the other pilot up in a bad spill.

Two Lock Handicaps.

The spill occurred when Harry Nelson of the Milwaukee A. C. and Fred Albert of Milwaukee locked hands. They fell and carried other riders with them, including William J. Bertola of the Victoria Sport club, who struck eight year old Clarence Broka knocking him down. All were taken to the Keystone hospital where their wounds were dressed by Drs. J. K. Eastman and David J. Jones. The crowd was kept off the course by the police in charge of Lieut. Roger Buchanan, and their quick action averted further trouble, as the riders were sent away just before the start of the 22-mile handicap.

As the riders in the 22-mile handicap were sent on their long journey the limit contestants had completed the first circuit of 2 1/2 miles. From the time until the finish the scratch riders gradually whittled down the list of the spectators were centered in the excellent field of scratch riders who were sent away just before the start of the 22-mile handicap.

Catch Field in 8th Lap.

In the eighth lap Merkner brought the scratch riders around and pulled them in even terms with the leaders. From this time until the finish it was a race between an evenly matched group of riders, but Merkner had the lead in the eighth lap. He was in the advance of Alphonse Vertenten of the Harley playground.

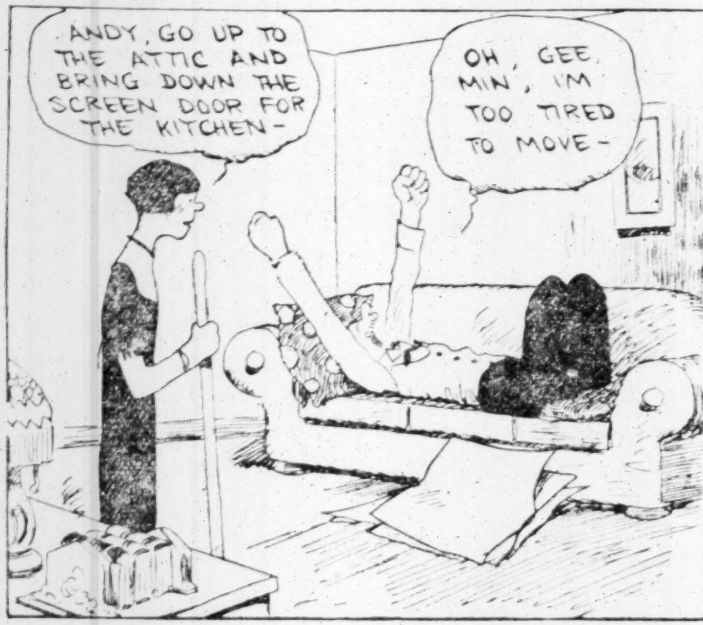

Merkner had been picked to win by the best of race making but at the last he had a chance of being overtaken. He kept clear of the pack and did not take any chances of getting mixed up in a spill. Merkner's actual riding time for the 22-mile race was 49:40.

The event of the finish showed the

AURORA ENTRIES,
96 FOR 7 RACES,
BREAK RECORDLimit Fields Likely in All of Today's Contests.

BY FRENCH LANE.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Aurora, Ill., May 23.—(Special.)

After a glance at the entries for tomorrow's seven races at Exposition park track here, turf fans will likely rub their eyes, pinch themselves, and begin to wonder if they are not at a spring meeting in Maryland or Kentucky.

Ninety-six thoroughbreds have been named in the overnight entries for the seven races, which is not only a record for Aurora but a new mark for all the Chicago district since racing was removed. A fact track is promised and limit fields likely will parade to the post in each contest.

Sixteen in Feature.

The Chevalier claiming handicap is the top line on the bill, and the field up until scratch time at least, will number sixteen. It includes a springling of nominations from Kentucky, Maryland, The Janna, and New Orleans. The race is at six furlongs and carries $1,000 in added money. Levy, Monday Morning, Green Blazes, and Fast Mail will likely share the support of most of the punters.

With nearly 100 jockeys here ready to accept money, the majority of them youngsters, veteran turfmen are expecting the meeting to develop one or more stars. Three lads, two experienced and the other an apprentice, have found a place in the spotlight during the early days of the season.

Mower Riders Four Winners.

Ray Mower, with four winning mounts to his credit, has taken the lead but Jay Roberts and R. Cross are close at his heels, each with three. H. Taylor, C. E. Allen, C. Hall and W. Hart also have shown considerable skill while L. Pheon, a veteran in Kentucky, has not hit his stride and has hung up but one victory in more than a dozen starts.

L. Pheon, an "Iron Turfman."

STAR FIELDER OF
CUBS ARRESTED
IN RAID ON FLAT

Hack Wilson, star center fielder for the Cubs, Chicago's National league baseball team, was arrested last night in an alleged disorderly flat at 803 Sheridan road. Seven other men and three women were arrested with him and three women evaded arrest. Roch and Burke of the Town Hall station, who made the raid, by leaping out of windows and running away.

The raid caused much commotion in crowded Sheridan road, coming as it did just after the hour when hundreds of machines were homeward bound from the theaters. Traffic was blocked for some time while the two patrol wagons backed up for their quarry. Michael Frahn and his wife, Lettie, were booked as keepers.

Lettie Frahn, according to Sergeant Burke, grew "stormy" during the raid throwing a book at him, gashing his face.

Sweetser and Gunn Crippled for Muirfield Golf Matches

BY DON SKENE.

Copyright 1926 by The Chicago Tribune

Muirfield, Scotland, May 23.—(Special.)—The American contenders in the British amateur golf tournament, starting tomorrow morning, are the two best players in the world, the two best players in the world, the two best players in the world.

Roland Mackenzie broke the Scotch tradition by playing a practice round on the Longniddry links with George Duncan, the famous Irish pro, this afternoon, but the other American entrants loafed about the hotel near the course, after going to the Presbyterian church in Edinburgh where they prayed for victory, while the Scotch and English stars would reprise the American invasion.

Two Cripples Appear.

A certain amount of gloom covered the American golf headquarters this afternoon when two cripples appeared among the Walker cup players. Jess Sweetser, who is suffering from influenza and carrying a high fever, developed a swollen left knee as a result of an old football injury. Watts Gunn, the brilliant young Georgian, also is laid up with rheumatism in his left knee.

Bobby Jones, the hottest American favorite, slept until early afternoon, setting the most complete rest. All the while there was a serious consideration of the event is the fact that he has selected fifteen drivers for the start.

Evans Makes Lone Fight.

Chick Evans, who is making a lone stand here, spent a quiet day with his mother, who is his only strong booster, except the American newspaper correspondents.

Stretching for a distance of 6,738 yards, the course is featured by the length of the holes, and the difficulties of bunkers. It will require endurance and stamina for victory, but according to the Americans it is more to their liking than other championship layouts in England and Scotland.

U. S. GOLFERS THREATEN

Muirfield, Scotland, May 23.—(Special.)—The history of the British royal and ancient game has the United States prepared such a thrust for golf honors as will be launched here tomorrow, when twenty Americans will enter the play for the British championship, and never were the chances better for an American to win the title for the first time.

Name Cowper
to Teach Free
Golf Classes

BY MORROW KRUM.

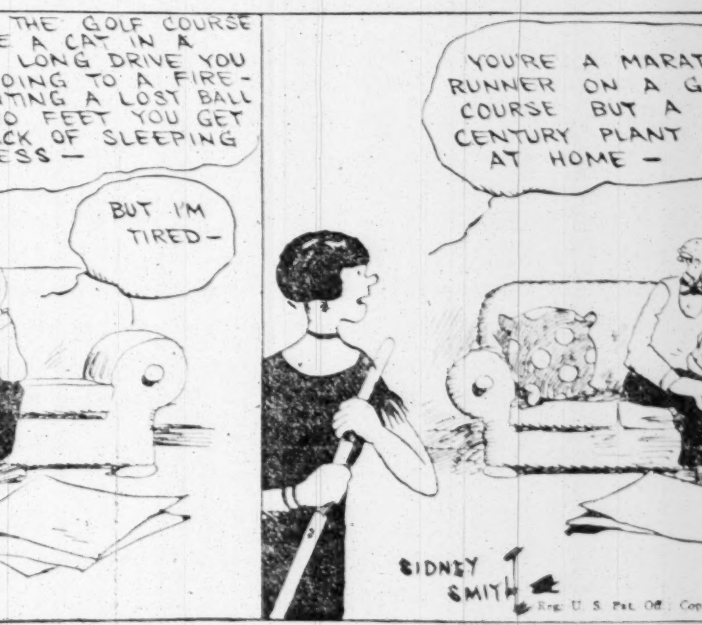

If you want to learn how to play golf and your purse will not permit a great expenditure of money for instruction you will find what you've been looking for at the Edgebrook forest preserve course this week.

Anton J. Cernak, president of the county board, announced Saturday that Stewart Cowper, golf instructor, has been engaged to conduct a free school at the forest preserve course. The school will be open some day this week.

Cowper has served with two widely known midwestern courses. Last year he was at the Grosse Ile Country club in Detroit and prior to that he was the professional at the Baywood Golf club in Hayward, Wis.

The students will be taken through a regular series of studies. First they will be given thorough instruction in the use of wooden clubs. This will include the proper method of hitting the ball, the timing of the swing, the stance, the back stroke, the proper use of each club on each hole and so on. From the tee shots the class will go on to the iron work. Driving irons, midlengths, number three irons, four, five, six and seven irons will be explained. How to keep out and how to get out of traps will be illustrated. What to do when on the green will be explained.

A registration system for the classes will be worked out this week by Cowper and will be announced in the newspapers. And everything will be free.

NEWS OF THE INSURANCE WORLD

INDUSTRY URGED TO SMOOTH OUT PENSION TANGLE

BY CHARLES BARTON.

Problems concerning the superannuated employee should be treated from a purely business standpoint of view, R. A. Hobaus, assistant actuary of the Metropolitan Life to the Casualty Actuarial Society in a recent address at the Belmont hotel, New York.

Industrial concerns are beginning to realize that persons must be paid. Mr. Hobaus said either conscientiously as direct pensions or unconsciously through retention on their payrolls of workers who have become inefficient through old age or disability. Of the two methods, the second was termed the costlier.

State May Intervene.

The question of pensions, he pointed out, must be solved by industry itself and not by the state or individuals. Should American industry ultimately fail to find a solution for its pension problem, he said, it may lead eventually to adoption by the state of a compulsory remedy.

Mr. Hobaus gave, however, his own belief that the necessary solution will be found by industry. He does not favor forced intervention by the state. It is antagonistic to the employer, he continued, that the problem be recognized as a business one rather than a matter of charity or reward. He should then seek a plan which is systematic, definite and sound. Cost of the pension would be assessed accordingly.

Contributory Plan Favored.

A favorable plan, Mr. Hobaus asserted, is one that secures as many products as possible, such as reduction in turnover and improvement in morale. Funds are laid aside on a mutual contributory basis, and accumulated for each employee during his productive years. Warnings were uttered against the forcing of such reserves as dividends.

Owing to the recent establishment of the eventual cost of pension plans, it is now desirable that more and more contributory plans be put into effect. The foretold their widespread future adoption by industry.

SEEK WAY FOR REDUCTION OF LABOR ACCIDENTS

An industrial accident prevention congress has been called by Secretary of Labor Davis to meet in Washington for three days, beginning July 1. State governors and industrial insurance organizations have been invited to send representatives.

The secretary declared that a conservative estimate has placed deaths from accidents in industry at more than 23,000 a year. Non-fatal injuries, he said, number 2,600,000. Aggregate time lost from work is 227,123,970 days.

Fully eighty-five per cent of the industrial accidents in the past were preventable, Mr. Davis asserted. Cooperation of the states and insurance organizations will be sought in the adoption of effective safety methods.

SUICIDE RATE IS HIGHEST AMONG OLD MEN, GIRLS

Girls between the ages of 15 and 19 are more prone to commit suicide than at any other age, according to a survey by the Eastern Underwriter. More than one-half take some form of poison. Another fourth die from auto accidents. Figures obtained from the Metropolitan Life show that suicide is approximately two and a half times as frequent among men as among women. Self-destruction does not assume unusual importance until the age of 20 is reached.

The highest rate is experienced during middle age, until at the age of 45 there are seven times more suicides by men than by women.

Iowa Club Women Assist Cause of Life Insurance

Iowa life underwriters are reported as being greatly interested in work now under way by the insurance committee of the Iowa Federation of Women's Clubs. Since the election of Mrs. W. F. Prichard of Garner, it is estimated that the message of life insurance has directly reached over 2,000 women. In talks given by leading insurance men of the state the subject of insurance has been approached from the "home" angle without mention of company affiliations.

More Smashups in Cheap Car Class; Risk Cost Less

Despite the fact that figures show that cheap automobiles sustain more accidents yearly than those of the more expensive makes, the public liability premiums are higher for the latter type because the average claim is more costly, declares R. L. Catlin of the Aetna Casualty and Surety company. He states that the average liability claim costs from $260 to $280 on cars in the cheap car group, while it ranges from $140 to $175 on cars in the higher priced class.

Find Fat People Hurt Less Frequently Than Others

Fat people, on the average, sustain fewer disabling accidents than those of lesser weights. It is indicated in a report of experience of the New York Mutual Life. Although the rate of termination of disability is more favorable in the case of women, the disability rate among all ages and weights of the general sex is shown to be approximately 10 per cent higher than among men.

Warns Against State Going Into Insurance Business

State funds are the creatures of politics, and because of this the administrative heads do not have the proper incentive to make good financial showings, asserts Insurance Commissioner S. W. Wade of North Carolina in warning against putting the state into the insurance business.

STULTS REALTY FIRM ADDS INSURANCE LINE, L. E. OEHREING MANAGER

Offering a plan whereby their clients may purchase a piece of property and at the same time secure all needed insurance protection, the department of the Stults Realty company, 1901 Montrose avenue, has added a department of insurance handling all lines of the risk business.

In that connection they announce the appointment of Lewis E. Oehring as manager of the insurance department. Mr. Oehring has had several years' experience as an insurance broker.

Mr. Oehring is a resident of Danville, Ill., and was granted $25,000 of life insurance. Just shortly more than two years later, on January 12, 1924, the man was killed while kneeling beside a deflated tire on his automobile. Another driver had failed to see him in his path.

CALLS INSURANCE A GUARD AGAINST POVERTY'S FANGS

One contestant meets with those whose argument against life insurance is that they prefer to save. As Dr. S. S. Houbert of the Wharton School of Commerce and Finance.

The saving habit, he continues, should by all means be encouraged, but it should be borne in mind that the saving of a competence involves the necessary time to save—often a period of many years. Life insurance, he points out, is the only certain method to use a hedge against the possibility of the saving period being cut short.

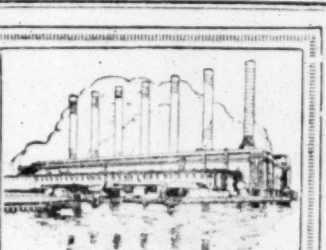

The life policy, from its very beginning, guarantees the full face value and, therefore, the policyholder against failure through early death to have sufficient time to save adequately through other channels, Dr. Houbert avers.

To Take Finger Prints of Wall Street Messengers

As a further protection against dishonesty in the Wall Street district, W. H. Joyce, chairman of the National Surety company, has announced that all "runners" or carriers of currency and securities, will be finger printed at the option of their employers. The plan is said to have been warmly received.

Spaulding Man Writes 153 Policies in 20 Days

Mark B. Lockyer, member of the R. E. Spaulding agency of the New York Mutual Life, 111 West Washington street, wrote 153 applications, totaling nearly $100,000, during the first twenty days of May. It was announced yesterday. It is expected that Mr. Lockyer, who is a million dollar a year producer, will far surpass his former records during 1926. He was formerly connected with the Illinois Life Insurance company.

PACIFIC STEEL BOILER CORPORATION

Waukegan, Ill., May 20, 1926.

Initial Dividend

A quarterly dividend of twenty-five cents per share has been declared on the common stock of this corporation payable June 1, 1926, to stockholders of record as of May 15, 1926. The amount of the dividend is $1.25 per share.

U. S. ENGINEER OFFICE, 315 S. DEARBORN ST., CHICAGO, ILL. The above dividend is subject to the approval of the Federal Reserve Board. For further information, apply to the U. S. Engineer Office.

GRIM REAPER IS COST EXPERT FOR INSURANCE FIRMS

Only by knowing exactly when the insured will die can the real cost of life insurance be determined, declares Douglas E. Thompson, agency secretary of the Mutual Trust Life, 17 West Washington street, in the June issue of his house publication.

Prospective policyholders often ask "How much does it cost?" he continues. They are then told what the annual deposit will be, but informed that the cost cannot be figured out until the policy has been issued.

Cities Death Claims

Mr. Thompson cites a claim paid recently for an auto death in proving his point. On December 9, 1924, a resident of Danville, Ill., applied for and was granted $25,000 of life insurance. Just shortly more than two years later, on January 12, 1924, the man was killed while kneeling beside a deflated tire on his automobile. Another driver had failed to see him in his path.

Mr. Thompson says that like other victims of sudden accidents, the insured had no idea such a thing would happen to him when he made his application for insurance. No doubt, he avers, the insured probably felt after taking out his policy that it was costing him a great deal.

As a matter of fact, it is pointed out, the man had paid $2,000 for his protection up till the time of death. This was less than five per cent of the amount paid to his heirs.

Must Make Distinction

This instance is only one of many illustrations which clearly demonstrate the impracticability of figuring the cost of life insurance in advance, the secretary asserts. Many times, he is insufficient in comparison with the benefits derived. In no case is it excessive.

The satisfaction of being fully protected should not be sacrificed by entering a wrong conception as to the cost of the expense of life insurance, he concludes. It is necessary to make this distinction whenever a program for life insurance is under consideration.

Grads Make $50,000 Policy Gift to Lafayette College

A graduation gift of a $50,000 insurance policy will be presented to Lafayette college, Easton, Pa., by the senior class of 1926. The policy will mature in 1951.

BRITISH MINERS' STRIKE CURB ON STOCK MARKET

BY WILLIAM S. PRESTON.
[Copyright, 1926, By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, May 23.—The week started out with a flare of buoyancy in these sections of the exchange such as home rails and industrials which felt the stoppage of the work most with the end of the general strike.

Prices accordingly rebounded quickly and there was little opportunity for securing bargains, the dealers having previously marked down the quotations in self-protection in order to discourage selling in the face of the national crisis.

Avail Coal Mine Peace

Since then comparatively little stock changed hands, and it was natural that the selling, which was limited, promptly was withdrawn as the situation cleared.

The recognition of the fact that the coal deadlock remained, however, caused an easing, and it was understood that property will be irrevocable until it finally is settled.

Winston Churchill, chancellor of the exchequer, made the statement that it is not necessary to impose extra taxation owing to the strike. This created an excellent impression on change, owing to the disposition to anticipate a reduction in the bank rate once the coal difficulty is cleared up, monetary conditions were easy.

Gilt Edged Shares Strong

Gilt edged shares opened in the week with a great display of strength, but later showed a duller tendency. The strong fall of the value of the franc was an unsettling influence during the week, but the energetic measures taken Friday by the French government brought about an improvement.

The market for foreign government bonds was active and firm. There also was good inquiry on European reconstruction issues and specialties such as Turkish Unifund, Persa Preference and Brazilian, the latter being particularly strong on a favorable budget report.

Foreign rails generally were better for the week. United Havana's falling on the settlement of the strike. Reported trouble in Argentina caused a dullness at first, but a rally followed the denial.

Tobacco, Textile Firm

Tobacco strength was a feature of the industrial market and electrical supplies showed spurts of animation. Most of the leading textiles showed a good tendency to advance, however, after jumping to 64 came in for heavy profit taking.

American Can.

H. O.—In March, 1926, the American Can company split up the old common stock six for one. The 412,332 shares of $100 par value were split into 2,473,992 shares of $25 par value.

The old $100 par stock was exchanged for the new $25 par stock on the basis of four for one and a stock dividend of 36 per cent.

The company earned $27.75 a share on the old stock in 1925, compared with $29.50 a share in 1924.

It added $10,000,000 to surplus, making that item $32,342,092 at the end of 1925. (On the old common stock, dividends at the rate of $2 per share per annum were being paid and, in addition, an extra of $2 a share was paid on Feb. 15, 1926.)

On the new $25 par stock on initial quarterly dividend of 50 cents a share was paid on May 15, making it on a $1 per share per annum basis, which is equivalent to $12 a share on the old $100 par stock.

The company retired the $8,126,000 debentured in 1925, thus removing all funded debt.

The common is a high grade stock.

Paper preferred were other good features. Iron, steel and steel enjoyed a night revival.

Owing to the advertising received from the rail strike, oils revived considerably. The buoyancy of shares in New York caused a stimulus. Rubber shares maintained quiet with a firm undertone prevailing despite the setback in commodity prices.

Associated Gas and Electric System

Founded in 1852

Two Decades of Group Service

It is now twenty years since the Associated Gas and Electric Company was incorporated (March 19, 1906). Nearly all the growth in the electric light and power industry (over 92% in K.W. hour output) has taken place during this period.

Today 65% of industries are electrified. Over 10,000,000 housewives have electric flatirons, 4,000,000 have electric vacuum cleaners and nearly 3,000,000 have electric washing machines. Twenty years ago none of these existed.

In 1906 the Associated Gas and Electric Company was organized to bring together several local plants under common supervision. The oldest of these plants was established in 1852 and 14 properties, now a part of the Associated System, have been in operation for more than 35 years.

In 1906 the Associated System served about 8,000 customers in less than 20 communities. Today it serves 330,000 in over 1,000 communities.

Group supervision in the utility field is a recent development, chiefly of the last ten years. The incorporation of the Associated Gas and Electric Company in 1906 therefore places it among the older organizations in this field. Group service has greatly helped to make possible the rapid growth that has occurred.

BULLETIN.

PARIS, May 25.—Abd-Krim's letter makes no change in the Moroccan situation, in the view of the French cabinet. After a cabinet meeting this morning, it was stated that the letter contained nothing definite and offered no guarantee of proof of authority.

BY HENRY WALES.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
PARIS, May 25, 3 a. m.—It is reported by Abd-Krim, chief of the Rifian rebels, who for years has waged war against the armies of France in Spain and Morocco, has accepted the main terms of the peace offer recently made at Oudja.

A special meeting of the French cabinet was called for early this morning. It will consider a note which was carried from Abd-Krim to Gov. Steeg of Morocco yesterday. It was by M. Parent, member of the French sanitary commission in the Rif.

KRIM SEEKS PEACE

BY LORIMER HAMMOND.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
REGGALA, Morocco, May 24.—Abd-Krim already has started feelers for new peace negotiations, according to rumors here. This report was received by THE TRIBUNE soon after the correspondent returned tonight from within the Rif lines where he learned of the badly demoralized condition of the rebel forces.
Before he left Oudja, where the successful peace conference was held last month, the Rifian secretary, Sidi Mohammed Azekane, made arrangements to send guides to take the Tribune correspondent through the Rif to Abd-Krim's headquarters wherever they might be. The day before yesterday the correspondent received his instructions. Last night he was accompanied from here to a post near the international bridge, where the Spanish lines practically no longer exist.
From that point it simply was a matter of a fifteen mile walk into the Rifian territory. After spending the night in a native farm house, the Tribune correspondent was conducted this morning on a seven hour ride muleback to a village where telephone communications are kept open with Krim's headquarters.

Meets Krim's Agents.

Three agents with a caravan of horses and mules were there. They had been instructed to convey the correspondent into the interior.
They read the credentials written for the newspaperman in Arabic. Azekane himself agreed everything was in order. However, he said they must refuse to make the trip because of yesterday's news that the Rifian actually had been taken at Djebel Hamman, now in surrounding on all sides but one—Alt Kamara—the road between Targuist and Ajad. That point is being defended as long as possible by Abd-Krim's brother, Sidi Mohammed. Phone messages from the Rif front line yesterday said it is not likely that Alt Kamara will be able to hold out for more than two days longer.

Sees Krim Is Beaten.

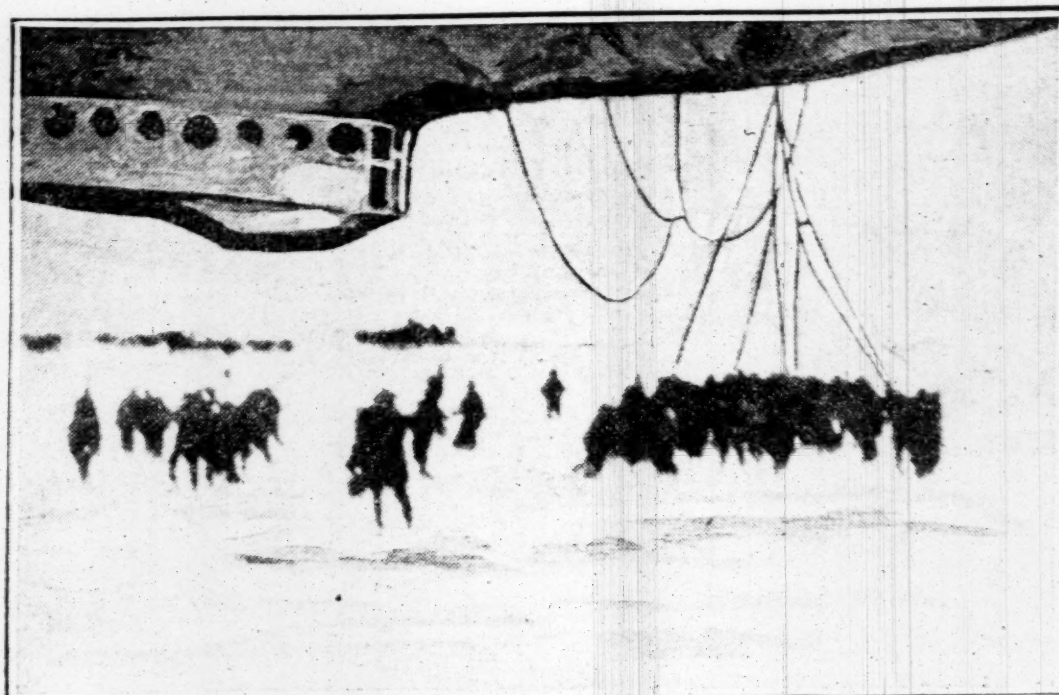

At last THE TRIBUNE correspondent learned at this village that there is no longer any doubt that Krim is beaten and the Rifian federation is on the point of breaking up.
The Rifian messengers from Targuist told the correspondent that the last stage of Krim's downfall is the work of one of his former chiefs whose motives were those of revenge. Said Amar Hamido, who is leading the final assault of the Spanish and French troops against Djebel Hamman, is the man. Until four months ago Hamido acted as one of Krim's trusted lieutenants. But early in January there was a hot quarrel and the leading Rifians over mining operations, accused Krim of trying to get the rights of the natives for personal profit.
They say they could have had honorable and advantageous peace with the French and Spanish early in the winter if Krim had not acted on the advice of the British committee for the Rif—a group of English.
